

HUMAN MAT

DESCRIPTION

The Human MAT is a training mat that offers the perfect balance of comfort and performance.

It's essential for intense workouts, stretching, and postural relaxation.

Carefully selected materials and finishes combine functionality with design, ensuring full support for the body's natural movements.

TECHNICAL FEATURES

The fabric is soft, antibacterial, and comfortable, while also being durable and easy to clean.

Inside, a combination of different densities (for both support and comfort) is achieved using materials like closed-cell foam and memory foam, making it an essential workout companion.

After your training session, you'll find it impossible to resist relaxing on the Human Mat.
